Welcome to Rivers Gallery to:

Hattice Allice Ozer who makes lovely stoneware bowls with slip painted figures.....

And to David Meredith and his beautiful and so precise life like small bronze pieces like this tiny dormouse curled up in a conker case, tiny wrens and mini hares.....

And.....

Adele Taylor, a silversmith who not only makes fine jewellery but silver plated kaleidoscopes, silver plated tiny vases with flowers and more.....

Also hello to.....
Cara Fairbairn and her lovely mix of oxidised silver and pearls

May 2010

What about these for seasonal art offerings?
Seed markers from Esther Coombs, not only do you have the name of the seeds but an image of the fruit or vegetable to expect!

and for al fresco relaxation..... how about Janet Haig's enamel on copper trellis flowers and candle holders then there is the conservatory, how about a Colin Chetwood lamp tall or short....

Welcome back to Rivers Gallery to:

Nicola Slattery, a wonderful printmaker and painter with four new pieces.....

Also Sonja Moss Dolega wonderful humorous narrative ceramics.....

And April Young cold cast resin, well observed animals

Also hello again to Jude Jelfs and her wonderful bronze women
